Grand Herald

The much regretted period of silence was due to the great re-organization work we had in a terrible climate of fierce opponents such as Political Catholic Organizations and Communists ones.

Masonry, for us, is way above and beyond political and religious questions and, of these two things, Masonry must interest itself only to control that men in our Country are completely free and that politics and religion do not become weapons for a dictatorship in the hands of a few inconsiderate men.

Here, in Italy, we know that your Organization is way ahead in work and

Mr. Joseph A. E. Ivey,

we, after 30 clandestine years and in hard conditions as explained above, do not despair in making our much desired dream come true of Universal Brotherhood.

We would enjoy receiving some communications from our American Brothers and anxiously looking forward to it.

With our very best wishes to you and your families, I remain

Sincerely and Fraternally yours,

Enzo Milone
